DeLoss McGraw Celebrates Robert Penn Warren
April 5–April 29, 2005

Robert Penn Warren was born on April 25, 1905, in Guthrie, Kentucky, and graduated from Vanderbilt in 1925. As a part of Vanderbilt's commemoration of the centennial of Warren's birth, artist DeLoss McGraw has created a series of lithographs inspired by Warren's poems that will be on display at the Robert Penn Warren Center for the Humanities from April 5 through April 29, 2005.

Mr. McGraw received his art training at Michigan's Cranbrook Academy of Art where he earned an M.F.A. in 1973. His work has been exhibited throughout the United States, Europe, and South America, and resides in numerous public and private collections.

You are cordially invited to attend a talk by Mr. McGraw on Tuesday, April 5, at 4:10 p.m., at the Bishop Joseph Johnson Black Cultural Center, room 118. Following the talk, the McGraw exhibit's opening reception will be held at the Robert Penn Warren Center from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m.

Cosponsored by the Robert Penn Warren Center and the Program in American and Southern Studies

Free parking will be available on Garland Avenue, and also on 24th Avenue between Garland and Highland (in front of the VA Hospital).
