Parks

METRO NASHVILLE PARKS
615-862-8400
www.nashville.gov/parks/locations/parks.htmCENTENNIAL PARK
2500 West End Ave.

Just a short walk from campus, visitors can find a retreat in the beauty of Centennial Park. Located on West End Avenue, the park offers many options for those seeking an adventure into a world of simple pleasures.

The fields have a great amount of space for playing Frisbee or football. There also is a jungle gym that allows you to swing to your heart's desire if sports are not up your alley.

Picnics are wonderful under the lush awnings of oak trees. Or, if you simply need a place to get away, bring a blanket and enjoy the view of the gardens and pond. If you want to make some new friends, bring a bag of bread and the ducks will waddle up to make your acquaintance.

For a historic lesson, visit the Parthenon. The Parthenon is located on the grounds of Centennial Park and houses a permanent collection of 63 paintings by 19th and 20th century artists. Additional gallery space allows for temporary exhibits. Inside is a giant reproduction of the original Parthenon's lost statue of Athena as well as exhibits of the frieze figures and lessons on how the Parthenon was built. If you are not able to make it during daylight hours for the art, a nighttime visit is still quite lovely with the white stone of the Parthenon's exterior sitting grandly beneath the dark blanket of sky.

The Parthenon is open Tuesday through Saturday, 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. For more information, visit www.nashville.gov/parks/cac.htm or call 615-862-8442.FANNIE MAE DEES, "DRAGON PARK"
2400 Blakemore Ave.

Nicknamed for the large dragon swimming through park's grass, the park is a nearby escape from Vanderbilt's campus. The park offers picnic areas as well as a large playground.

RIVERFRONT PARK & PEDESTRIAN BRIDGE
First Avenue

Take a walk along the river for fresh breezes and views of downtown. During summer months, Riverfront Park hosts music and cultural festivals from time to time. The Shelby Street Bridge offers pedestrians a view of the skyline from high above the Cumberland River. Check it out at night when the bridge and the city are beautifully illuminated.

SEVIER PARK
12th Ave. S. & Kirkwood

Located conveniently across the street from the popular popsicle shop Las Paletas, the park plus a popsicle is the perfect formula for summer relaxation. With your favorite flavor, you can stroll through the grassy knolls of Sevier Park.

BICENTENNIAL CAPITOL MALL STATE PARK
600 James Robertson Parkway

For a blend of history and natural beauty, visit Bicentennial Park. Located near Tennessee's capitol building, the park offers warm-weather relief for children who enjoy playing in the 31 fountains that represent the state's rivers and waterways at the Tennessee River Wall.

Art

SCOTT THOMAS / Nashville Convention & Visitors Bureau

The Frist Center for the Visual Arts
919 Broadway
615-244-3340
www.fristcenter.org

With exhibits like Medieval Treasures from the Cleveland Museum of Art and Museums in the 21st Century, a collection that explores the concepts and buildings of modern museums, a trip to The Frist is a must for art and culture enthusiasts. A variety of events take place at the museum including ARTini; a chance to informally discuss one or two works from the gallery with a Frist curator or guest lecturer while mingling with others over martinis and live music in the Grand Lobby. During the summer you are invited to Frist Fridays, which include entertainment, art, a cash bar and hors d'oeuvres under the stars. See the Frist's calendar and website for more details.

THE PARTHENON
2600 West End Ave. in Centennial Park
615-862-8431
www.nashville.gov

GARY LAYDA / Nashville Convention & Visitors Bureau

The power of Athena reigns in Centennial Park's replica of the famous Greek Parthenon. To see the statue of Athena and the permanent art collection of 63 paintings by 19th and 20th century artists as well as temporary exhibits, plan to visit the Parthenon any time Tuesday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Admission is $5 for adults.

TENNESSEE STATE MUSEUM
505 Deaderick St.
615-741-2692
www.tnmuseum.org

Learning is always fun, especially when it's free. Among the museum's permanent collections, visitors can explore subjects such as Antebellum and The Frontier. The museum and its free entry are definitely worth a visit. In addition to the museum's permanent exhibits, The People's House: A Temple of Democracy opens on August 1st to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Tennessee State Capitol.

Country Music

COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME AND MUSEUM

Originally a church, this historic building is a must-see for every country music lover. The musical legacy of the venue continues to build its repertoire with a variety of concerts and performances on its legendary stage.

BLUEBIRD CAFÉ
4104 Hillsboro Pike
615-383-1461
www.bluebirdcafe.com

Enjoy the talents of songwriters in the historic Bluebird Café. The venue is known for original country and acoustic music seven nights a week. Guests are invited to enjoy food or drinks during the performers' sets, but talking is prohibited. The experience is truly about the music. To hear what may be the next big hit, visit the Bluebird on its free writers' nights on Sundays, when new songwriters perform, followed by a hit songwriter as the finale.

THE GRAND OLE OPRY
2804 Opryland Drive
615-871-6779
www.opry.com

As a cornerstone of the country music industry, the Grand Ole Opry is not to be missed. Opry shows include elements of country, bluegrass, gospel and comedy performed by Country Music Hall of Famers, Opry members, celebrities and rising stars. For those unable to see a live show, the performances are broadcasted on Great American Country (GAC), Nashville's 650 AM on the website opry.com.

Honky Tonks

TOOTSIE'S ORCHID LOUNGE
422 Broadway
615-726-0463
www.tootsies.net

Take a walk among the legends of country music ... or at least their photos at Tootsie's Orchid Lounge. The walls of the lounge boast publicity shots of the greats, the wannabes and the never-will-bes. The lounge is the birthplace of careers of greats like Willie Nelson and Kris Kristofferson. The live music and historical venue are worth experiencing at least once to complete your exploration of country history in Nashville.

THE STAGE
412 Broadway
615-726-0504
www.thestageonbroadway.com

Experience a real honky-tonk with a night at The Stage. Open seven days and seven nights a week, the venue offers live music. The bar is spacious enough to host larger bands and still offer floor space for dancing.

BELCOURT THEATRE
2102 Belcourt Ave.
615-383-9140
www.belcourt.org

Since 1925, the Belcourt has been a silent film house, the home of the Children's Theatre of Nashville and provided the stage for the Grand Ole Opry. With such a history, it's natural that the Belcourt continue to embrace the arts of Music City. The venue shows a variety of films, including independent and foreign films, and hosts performing musicians and art shows. An eclectic mix of events at the theatre offers participants the opportunity to explore the arts off the beaten path. ■

SUMMER SPINS

AVERY SPOFFORD
Music Editor

Outgoing Music Editor Avery Spofford samples a few of this summer's most anticipated albums, giving readers an idea of what they should be spinning over their summer vacation.

PASSION PIT: "MANNERS" (MAY 19)

Hailed by some as the second coming to messianic dance-floor darlings MGMT, Passion Pit has held its place as the favorite of the blogosphere since last year's September debut, "Chunk of Change." With the release of its first full-length ("Manners") this summer, however, the five-piece act is faced with a sink-or-swim situation: a successful release could mean widespread mainstream recognition, whereas a failed sophomore effort could reduce the band to just another flash in the pan. But, with psychedelic hit "Sleepyhead" already under their belts and a mind-blowing video for "The Reeling," the first single off "Manners," my money's on success and Passion Pit as 2009's breakthrough summer album.

DAVE MATTHEWS BAND: WHISKEY AND THE GROOGRUX KING (JUNE 2)

Although still in mourning at the death of their much-acclaimed saxophonist, the late LeRoi Moore, college favorites Dave Matthews Band are gearing up for the release of their seventh studio album this summer, "Whiskey and the GrooGrux King."

The band has not released a full-length studio album since 2005's "Stand Up," which topped the Billboard charts at No. 1 and showcased home-grown favorite "American Baby" as one of the album's strongest tracks.

The first single from the album, "Funny the Way It Is," was available for free download for one week on the Dave Matthews Band website and features the band's trademark relaxed vibe and jam-based sound.

LIL' WAYNE: REBIRTH (JUNE 9)

Also releasing a seventh studio album this summer is "The Best Rapper Alive:" New Orleans-bred flow sensation Lil' Wayne.

Wayne's summer release of "Tha Carter III" proved to be the smash hit of the year, winning a total of three Grammy Awards (including Album of the Year), and Lil' Wayne fans expect nothing but more of the best from the international sensation.

The sound on "Rebirth," however, will come as a surprise to some: the album will be Wayne's first foray into the rock genre. A preview of the album has already been released, a debut single that only the truest Lil' Wayne fan could love: "Prom Queen" is a dragging, ear-bleeding track that has left many of us wondering, "Weezy, WTF?"

Still, after "Tha Carter III" even the most dubious critic would admit that Wayne's release is one of the most anticipated of the season.

WILCO: WILCO (JUNE 30)

We've always known that seven is a lucky number: Chicagoan alternative rockers Wilco will also release their seventh studio album this summer, the eponymously-titled "Wilco."

Although the album leaked in its entirety on May 13, the band has responded with grace: the entire album is now streaming live from the official Wilco website, and the band is putting a lien on illegal downloaders to donate their guilt money to a local Chicago charity.

Wilco is a Grammy Award-winning rock act featuring influences from across the board: both country and alternative rock have been cited as major genres within the group's music, and Rolling Stone magazine has called Wilco "America's foremost rock impressionists." ■

RESTAURANTS

In your backyard

SUNSET GRILL
2001 Belcourt Ave.
615-386-3663
www.sunsetgrill.com

At Sunset you get style and comfort while enjoying a meal of seafood, steak, pasta, vegetarian or specials. Dining areas include a low-lit dining room with candles and clean white linens or the airy outdoor patio, which is the best location to see and be seen. To try the menu at nearly half the price, consider Sunset for your late-night snack with great choices like nachos and delicious desserts.

CABANA
1910 Belcourt Ave.
615-577-2262
www.cabanashville.com

TAWNEY MILAM / Student media

They've lifted the wall of glass garage doors, allowing a soft breeze to dance through the restaurant. The low lighting glows blue and green, softly complementing the fresh air. The bartenders are busy behind the bar mixing drinks for the after-work crowd as laughter wafts through the large dining area from the cabana booths. This is a summer night at Cabana.

Located just off the main strip of Hillsboro Village, Cabana is a hot spot for those who like to see and be seen. Dining areas include tables and booths in the central dining room, large cabanas lining one wall, and outdoor patio seating that offers a perfect view of the neighboring restaurants for people watching.

Both a dinner and a late night spot, Cabana provides an urban chic dining experience with tasty choices, with a late-night menu offering a downsized version of the dinner menu. You can start dinner with the Tennessee Sliders, the delicious sweet potato biscuits with fried chicken decorated with peach preserves, or perhaps some White Bean Hummus. If you really like the appetizers, you can make them a filling meal by adding a side such as Buttermilk Mashed Potatoes or Mustard Greens.

Mouth-watering meal choices include the Margherita Pizza, Chicken and Black Bean Ravioli or Grilled Blackened Mahi. You can finish off the perfect meal with desserts like TN Strawberry Shortcake. For pizza lovers, pizzas are two-for-one Sunday and Monday dine-in only. ■

JACKSON'S BAR & BISTRO
1800 21st Ave. S.
615-385-9968

The outdoor patio seating is the best part of Jackson's. Its prime spot in Hillsboro Village creates the perfect people-watching opportunity. You can come as you are for lunch, dinner, late night snacks, drinks or brunch on the weekends. When you go to Jackson's, don't forget to try their famous cookie dough eggrolls.

BOSCO'S
1805 21st Ave. S.
615-385-0050
www.boscobeer.com

Popular for brewing its own beers, Bosco's is also known for its scrumptious oven-baked pizzas. The restaurant has a casual chic flair that offers casual fine dining. The food and dining experience are pleasant without paying a high price.

FIDO
1812 21st Ave. S.
615-777-FIDO
www.bongojava.com/fido.html

Named in honor of the pet shop that previously occupied this Hillsboro store, Fido is a blend of restaurant and coffeehouse. On a morning when you're on the run, grabbing a muffin with a cup of coffee or hot chocolate is just the thing. Full meals also are available, and booths and window bar-style seating welcome you to read a book or work on your laptop while enjoying your food or coffee.

LIME
1904 Broadway
615-340-0762

Latin fusion hits the streets of Nashville with the hip Lime restaurant. It is very much a see-and-be-seen dinner spot. The low light and higher prices make it more than your average dinner choice. Though the interior is beautiful, it's always wonderful to enjoy the great summer weather, and you can at Lime when its garage door windows are open.

CAFÉ COCO
210 Louise Ave.
615-321-COCO
www.cafecoco.com

This 24-hour café offers food, coffee and live music. Originally a house, the small and eclectic venue creates an intimate atmosphere, perfect for chatting over coffee with old friends or meeting new ones at the table next to you. So whether you're craving coffee, a late night snack or cool new music, Café Coco is the place to go.

SPORTSMAN'S GRILLE
1601 21st Ave. S.
615-320-1633
www.sportsmansgrille.com

Welcome to the lodge. Well you can at least feel like it's a lodge as Sportsman's greets you with stuffed game decorating their dark wood-paneled walls. The cozy interior welcomes you to try a burger or some catfish while enjoying a beer or glass of wine, if you're 21 of course. Rumor has it that great jazz is performed upstairs on Wednesday nights. And for the late-night crowd, Sportsman's is a popular bar spot for Vandy students.

Nashville Traditions

PANCAKE PANTRY
1796 21st Ave. S.
615-383-9333
www.pancakepantry.com

It's important to get an early start at Pancake Pantry because of the long lines that form at the door during peak meal times. Once you're in line, though, you'll see that it moves pretty quickly. Though a little overpriced, the pancakes are quite delicious. Options are available for every taste: Chocolate chip pancakes and fruity varieties as well as other tasty breakfast items beyond pancakes.

NOSHVILLE
1918 Broadway
615-329-NOSH
www.noshville.com

The restaurant's fare is New-York-deli-meets-Nashville. A range of items are available, from breakfast options and delicious huge sandwiches to meat platters. A warning to all pickle-lovers: Beware of the yummy supply available for seemingly endless consumption on the tables.

JACK'S BAR-B-QUE
416 Broadway
615-254-5715
www.jacksbarbque.com

The secret is in the sauce, or so they say. For a finger-lickin' good meal, try Jack's Bar-B-Que on Broadway. It's easy to find, with the large sign decorated with pigs. Keeping in mind that you'll smell like a smoky grill after being inside Jack's, a walk outside will help you air out a bit.

MONELL'S
108 Bridge St.
615-790-6998 http://monellsdining.yppguides.net/

"Pass the potatoes please." When you're at Monell's, you're like family. Restaurant-goers sit around large tables and enjoy their meals family style as dishes are passed around for diners to help themselves. Monell's food is the epitome of Southern cuisine, but be sure you're also ready to pour on the Southern charm as you share your meal with so many others.

SATCO
416 21st Ave. S.
615-327-4322

SATCO combines its always-popular queso, tasty tacos and breezy patio seating to create a completely relaxed dining experience. Very popular with Vandy students, the chill atmosphere invites you to sit and relax with fun conversation. Be sure to sit on the patio for the best SATCO experience.

LAS PALETAS
2907 12th Ave. S.
615-386-2101
www.wheresthesign.com

Who ever said popsicles aren't that special? For flavors that are beyond the ordinary, visit Las Paletas. Inspired by the owner's Mexican roots, the various flavored popsicles offer something unique for every taste bud and hot day of summer. With Chili Pepper Chocolate or Hibiscus Popsicle in hand, you are ready for a beautiful day in the warm summer weather. Your trip to Las Paletas is a wonderful afternoon just waiting to happen.

ROTIER'S
2413 Elliston Place
615-327-9892
www.rotiers.com

When you're in the mood for some greasy comfort food, Rotier's is the place for you. This family-owned restaurant has become a tradition for Nashvillians and Vanderbilt students alike. The darkly lit diner is popular for its made-to-order French bread cheeseburgers and thick milkshakes. Don't be scared of the dive-bar appearance, it's part of the experience. ■

LOVELESS CAFÉ
8400 Highway 100
615-646-9700
www.lovelesscafe.com

Once you hear "welcome to the Loveless Café" with the cadence of a Southern drawl, you know you are about to experience a down-home meal.

Rich in its history and recipes, the Loveless is a warm and inviting place for any meal. The famous biscuits are wonderfully paired with their popular fried chicken or ham, fresh vegetables and hash brown casserole. You even have the opportunity to see the magic of biscuit making through the restaurant's biscuit-viewing window. Who knows, maybe you'll even have the chance to meet the Biscuit Lady herself.

Whether you are waiting to be seated during the peak meal times or simply want to take a piece of the Loveless home with you after a meal, take a walk through the neighboring shops. The old motel rooms on the grounds of the café have been converted into shops that feature "Got Biscuits?" t-shirts, jams, bicycles and unique gifts. ■

THE GOURMET OUTDOORS

COURTNEY ROGERS
Versus Editor in Chief

Though the Vanderbilt campus may be emptier for the summer months, there is no better time to be in Nashville than the summertime. Sunshine abounds and all of the outdoor fun that had to be postponed over the winter can now take its rightful place on what is hopefully a less busy calendar.

For some, this means hiking around Radnor Lake, calling up every friend you know who lives in an apartment complex with a pool or even heading out to the Nashville Zoo at Grassmere. But for a sampling of the outdoors without a full day adventure, get your dose of vitamin D by dining al fresco at some of Nashville's great restaurants. Here are our top five.

1. JACKSON'S

Located in Hillsboro village, this eatery serves up bistro fare for brunch, lunch and dinner. On the patio, diners can choose from refreshing salads, hearty sandwiches, French-inspired entrees and toasty paninis. Though the portions won't leave you wanting, those with a sweet tooth will do well to save room for dessert. The cookie dough egg rolls and flash fried Twinkies are not to be missed. 1800 21st Ave. S.

2. PM

COURTNEY ROGERS / Student Media

Also tucked away in nearby Hillsboro Village, PM is a hopping lunch and dinner spot. On its outdoor patio, you can enjoy Asian fusion at its best. For lunch, sushi lovers can delight in economical combinations of rolls and nigiri or sashimi with miso soup and salad included. Not a fan of bite-sized raw fare? Don't cross off PM yet. Their cheeseburger has a strong cult following and the bistro and full plate menus offer variety for more particular eaters. 2017 Belmont Blvd.

3. RUMBA

Nothing says summer like a taste of the Caribbean, and Rumba serves it up daily. Minutes from campus on West End, Rumba's offerings are an exotic break from traditional Nashville cuisine. Fans of the restaurant rave about its authentic conch fritters, satay and tapas plates. For those old enough to indulge, Rumba offers a wide selection of rum and acclaimed mojitos, which are said to make the patio ambiance even more relaxing. 3009 West End Ave.

4. EASTLAND CAFE

If your adventurous streak is pining for a trip off campus but your taste buds favor American cuisine, why not stop by the Eastland Cafe for dinner. Nestled in East Nashville, Eastland has a neighborhood vibe and prides itself on "good, honest food and a good, honest price." Patrons rave about the green chili mac and cheese, fresh salads and steaks. True, Eastland isn't on the card but its atmosphere and food make the trip and the price tag very worthwhile. 97 Chapel Ave.

5. FLYTE

Across the street from one of Vandy's favorite purveyors of weekend fun, Frugal MacDoogal, Flyte has a funky, upscale vibe. The dinner menu is exciting and innovative, but try out the patio for happy hour and small plates. We've heard great things about the sweet potato fries and buffalo chicken spring rolls and the knowledgeable wait staff will help you select the perfect wine flyte. 718 Division St. ■

SHOPPING

Hillsboro

PANGAEA
1721 21st Ave. S.
615-269-9665
www.pangaeanashville.com

The boutique is best described as below the border. Pangaea is truly "all the continents combined," as described by one of the employees. Clothing, jewelry, stationery, books, bedding, knickknacks ... it's all available at Pangaea.

POSH
1813 21st Ave. S.
615-383-9840
www.poshonline.com

Posh. The name alone says it all. The boutique is definitely on the pricier side, but the clothing and shoes are fun and stylish. Products are available for women and men, and the shoe store is located directly next door to the clothing store.

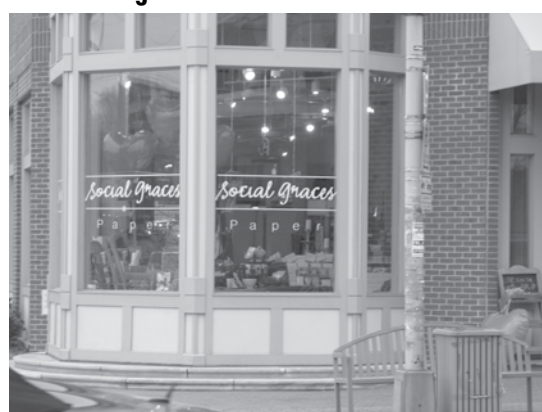

FIRE FINCH
1818 21st Ave. S.
615-385-5090
www.firefinch.net

TAWNEY MILAM / Student Media

The worldly flavor of Fire Finch is evident in everything from the music selection that plays softly in the background to the colorful fabrics draping the furniture, resulting in an exotic shopping experience. The mélange of colors and textures draws the eye to the beautiful scarves, funky hats, chic Hobo clutches and glittering jewelry. Products and prices vary, so there truly seems to be a gift or purchase for every occasion and price bracket.

SOCIAL GRACES
1704 21st Ave. S.
615-383-1911
www.socialgracesonline.com

TAWNEY MILAM / Student Media

It's the paper store you never knew you needed. Shelves of invitations and papers abound in the boutique, calling to you with their beautiful colors and adorable designs. For all your invitation needs, Social Graces is your store.

A THOUSAND FACES
1720 21st Ave. S.
615-298-3304

TAWNEY MILAM / Student Media

For the unique gift for that special friend or relative, explore the goodies inside A Thousand Faces. Most of the products featured are created by Nashville-based artists. Merchandise ranges from glass and wood to fabric and paper. Gifts, sculptural pieces, jewelry... it's all found at A Thousand Faces.

THE MALL AT GREEN HILLS
2126 Abbott Martin Road
615-298-5438
www.mallatgreenhills.com

The Mall at Green Hills has a reputation as the leading provider of high-end shopping. With the big department stores like Macy's and Dillard's as well as staples such as J.Crew and Anne Klein, the mall long has been the source for the area's exclusive shopping needs. With recent and continuing growth, the mall is expanding to meet the evolving needs of the Nashville community.

The most recent addition to Green Hills is the Lacoste store, which offers Vanderbilt students the chance to buy their favorite color polo shirts and crisp shorts for the summer and warm weather of early fall. On the horizon are the additions of Juicy Couture and Burberry stores.

Juicy Couture offers the ladies the juicy piece, a velour track suit as well as great perfume and beautiful charm bracelets. Burberry will bring shoppers the ability to purchase the classic trench and rain boots, necessities on Vanderbilt's campus during the volatile weather.

As expansion continues, the mall will become a more prominent one-stop shopping center for all fashion lovers. Who needs New York when you have the growing Green Hills Mall?

West End

NASHVILLE CLOTHING COMPANY
2292 West End Ave.
615-577-5346
www.nashvilleclothingco.com

NCC has a very urban, funky feel with its hardwood floors, low lighting, chic sitting area and musically inspired undertones. Great pieces include a wide selection of jeans, men's vests, colorful camisoles, trendy sunglasses and band t-shirts. And you do not have to worry about spending a fortune when shopping at NCC because there are products for every budget.

DENHIM
2817 West End Ave.
615-327-3250
www.denhim.com

As a store strictly for "him," denHim offers a variety of products such as t-shirts, belts and jeans. The store is small and intimate enough to not be overwhelming, yet a nice selection is still available. The environment is clean and fresh to allow for a simple and enjoyable shopping experience. Brands available include Lacoste, Lucky and Fred Perry.

BOUTIQUE BELLA
2817 West End Ave.
615-467-1471
www.boutiquebella.com

The upscale Boutique Bella is conveniently located in the Park Place shopping strip on West End. The shop is perfect for the ladies who wish to get their name brand clothing items without making the trip to the Green Hills mall. Brands include Juicy Couture, Joe's Jeans, Lacoste and True Religion.

CUMBERLAND TRANSIT
2807 West End Ave.
615-321-4069
www.cumberlandtransit.com

For outdoor adventure, Cumberland Transit is the store. For activities like hiking, backpacking, kayaking, climbing and fishing, Cumberland Transit has the gear, the clothing and the advice to make your next outdoor trip as great as possible.

UNITED APPAREL LIQUIDATORS
2918 West End Ave.
615-340-9999

The premise: high-end fashion at the lowest of prices. Big-brand labels are at prices 70-90% off suggested retail through a no frills, low overhead mentality. Brands like Stella McCartney, Jimmy Choo and Marc Jacobs leave their homes of elegant and sophisticated boutiques and department stores to find themselves in the barest of warehouses, with unheard of great prices. ■
