

AUGUST KAMPMEIER COLLECTION

1876 – 1928

Collection Number: MSS 234

Size: .21 linear feet

Special Collections and University Archives

Jean and Alexander Heard Library

Vanderbilt University

Nashville, Tennessee

AUGUST KAMPMEIER

1876 – 1928

Biography/History

August Kampmeier was born January 28, 1856, in Freeport, Illinois. He attended the following schools: University of Wisconsin, 1870-73, and Gymnasium of Gutersloh, 1873-75. He also attended the University of Tübingen, 1875-76; University of Leipzig, 1876-77; and attended the Theological Seminary of German Evangelical Synod of North America, 1877-79. He was Ordained in 1879.

Scope and Contents

This .21 linear feet collection contains five items, in four folders: a bound, handwritten copy of a 1928 unpublished manuscript, two diplomas [in German], a biographical sketch, and, a translation sheet.

Biographical Sketch

1901

Diploma

University of Tübingen, 1876

University of Leipzig, 1877

Manuscript

A Critical Biblical History
by Rev. August Kampmeier, 1928