

VIVIAN MARSH

Special Collections and University Archives

Jean and Alexander Heard Library

Vanderbilt University

Nashville, Tennessee

VIVIAN MARSH

Scope and Contents

This collection contains four letters written to Vivian Marsh from Mabel Mobley in Johnston, South Carolina. Mrs. Mobley was born in slavery. In 1967, when these letters were written Mabel lived on the Marsh Plantation.

The letters are not dated, but one of the envelopes has a postmark.

Topics discussed:

- Cotton
- Peaches
- Pecans
- Blackberries
- Recipe for Japanese Fruit Cake
- Winemaking
- How people treat the elderly