The Cal Turner Program for Moral Leadership in the Professions is pleased to invite you to the following student discussion:

"Business Ethics: Facing a Crisis or Business as Usual?"

This discussion will focus on the contemporary state of business ethics in America. As part of the conversation, it will address whether given the recent high profile scandals, such as Enron, Worldcom, and Refco, there is any response that we could consider progress.

Discussion Leader: Bart Victor, Owen Graduate School of Management

Date: Thursday, February 16, 2006 from 5:30-6:30 PM

Location: Divinity School, Room 129 (Private Dining Room)

Pizza and soda will be provided. Please register in advance by visiting our website at http://www.vanderbilt.edu/moral_leadership/eventstu.htm and clicking on the "Register" button, or by calling the Cal Turner Program office at 343-5447.

We hope you will join us!

Carpenter Program in Religion, Gender, and Sexuality Upcoming Events

Dr. James Alison
February 23, 2006
7:00 p.m.
Room G-23

Lecture Title: Original Sin and the Possibility of Learning: Towards a Properly Theological Understanding of Natural Law
Dr. Alison will attempt to make the case for how a strong understanding of Original Sin, understood backwards from Christ's Resurrection, makes it possible for us to develop a properly theological understanding of Natural Law as our normal way of grasping the link between Creation and the New Creation

February 24, 2006 (Brown Bag Lunch)
12:00 p.m.
G-23

Lecture Title: Ecclesial Learning and the Gay Question: Notes on the Process of Discovering Ourselves as Having Got Something Wrong
Dr. Alison will apply some of what he has talked about in the previous lecture to contemporary Church discussion about matters gay and how we might agree on ecclesial processes of talking.

KMSI Events

- Black Church and Public Policy Conference April 4-6, 2006 Nashville, TN

KMSI is co-sponsoring, with the Candler School of Theology at Emory University, a Black Church Studies Consultation on January 31 - February 3, 2006. Directors of Black Church Studies programs across the country will be in dialogue about the future of Black Church Studies and the academy. This consultation was initiated last year at the Vanderbilt Divinity School.

Community and black church leaders will be in dialogue with Vanderbilt University professors during the Black Church and Public Policy Conference on April 4-6, 2006. Participants include the following:

Governor Phil Bredesen , Congressman Harold Ford, Jr. , Commissioner Kenneth Robinson, Professor Victor Anderson, Professor Brad Braxton, Professor Herbert Marbury, Professor Dennis Dickerson, Professor Lewis Baldwin

I invite you to participate in each of these events. Additional information will be forthcoming.

Dear Vanderbilt Class of 2006:

The Vanderbilt Alumni Association is excited to offer you an e-mail forwarding address of your.name@vanderbilt.edu through Dore2Dore, Vanderbilt's online community for alumni. Emails sent to your alumni address will be forwarded to an already existing email account (like yahoo or gmail).

IMPORTANT: Your student VUNetID and password will NOT work on Dore2Dore. This e-mail forwarding account is NOT related to your VU student account; it is completely separate. And you MUST sign up for a Dore2Dore VUNetID and password. For questions regarding your student email account, please contact ITS at 343-2100.

E-mail forwarding is just one of the many valuable FREE online alumni services now available to you at www.Dore2Dore.net. To get started, click on "Log in for new users"

YOU CAN:

- Create an E-mail forwarding alumni email address
- Search the online alumni directory of 115,000 VU alumni to find your friends
- Update your contact info online so friends can find you and to receive the latest Vanderbilt news and events info. (IMPORTANT: VU info is mainly sent via e-mail, so always keep your e-mail updated!)
- Post a Class Note letting friends know about your life since VU
- Expand your Career Network with more than 13,000 alumni globally through the Commodore Career Connection
- Sign up for an alumni discussion group or start your own
- Send Vande-gram e-postcards, and more!

VAGINA MONOLOGUES

As part of the 2006 V-Day College Campaign, the students of Vanderbilt University are proud to present a benefit production of The Vagina Monologues to raise awareness and funds for local organizations working to end violence against women and girls.
