

Composite

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? _____

2. How would you describe your current English level?

Advanced (circled)
Basic (circled)
High Int (circled)
Intermediate (circled)
" (circled)
middle (circled) standard (circled)
4? (circled)

3. How long have you been in the US? 2 1/2 yrs. 2 yrs. 1 month 6 months (x2) 3 months

4. How comfortable are you using English?

1 1/2 yrs. 10 months 1 year
14 yrs. 2 yrs. 6 months (x2) 3 months comfortable speaking; no chance to speak; nervous (x2) read/listen; yes; very good; not good; a little sometimes easy; it is ok, but need more fluency/vocabulary; quite comfortable

5. How often do you speak English?

- all the time
- at least 4 times an hour
- // at least once an hour
- /// once a day
- //// only in class
- other (please specify) _____

6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)

- // hourly
- /// several times a day
- // at least once a week
- weekly
- other (please specify) _____

7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.

- // accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
- /// fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
- /// phrases you can use in different situations
- /// confidence when speaking English
- // other (please specify) pronunciation

8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.

- /// visiting the doctor
- /// going to the grocery store
- /// ordering food in a restaurant
- // speaking to teachers of my children
- /// speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
- /// talking in class
- /// preparing to study at a US university
- /// other (please specify) go to church / on the phone /

TOEFL (plan to do exam) / at work (office work)

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- ~~1111~~ Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- 1111 Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- 11 ~~1111~~ Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- 1 Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- 11 ~~1111~~ Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- ~~1111~~ Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- 1 Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- 11 Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- 111 ~~1111~~ Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- 1 Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- ~~1111~~ Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

11 Vocabulary/new phrases

Spelling

reading

Speaking

English communication skills

work or life knowledge in America

Speak more quickly

It is funny

11 fluently speaking

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? Malasika Sambadnikany
2. How would you describe your current English level? Standard
3. How long have you been in the US? 6 months
4. How comfortable are you using English? quite comfortable
5. How often do you speak English? Sometimes, during shopping, has some american friend too.
 - all the time
 - at least 4 times an hour
 - at least once an hour
 - once a day
 - only in class
 - other (please specify) _____
6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)
 - hourly
 - several times a day
 - at least once a week
 - weekly
 - other (please specify) _____
7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.
 - accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
 - fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
 - phrases you can use in different situations
 - confidence when speaking English
 - other (please specify) _____
8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.
 - visiting the doctor
 - going to the grocery store
 - ordering food in a restaurant
 - speaking to teachers of my children
 - speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
 - talking in class
 - preparing to study at a US university
 - other (please specify) _____

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? Dita Szantay
2. How would you describe your current English level? advanced
3. How long have you been in the US? 1 year
4. How comfortable are you using English? It is ok, but need more fluency and vocabulary.
5. How often do you speak English?
 - all the time
 - at least 4 times an hour
 - at least once an hour
 - once a day
 - only in class
 - other (please specify) _____
6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)
 - hourly
 - several times a day
 - at least once a week
 - weekly
 - other (please specify) _____
7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.
 - accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
 - fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
 - phrases you can use in different situations
 - confidence when speaking English
 - other (please specify) _____
8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.
 - visiting the doctor
 - going to the grocery store
 - ordering food in a restaurant
 - speaking to teachers of my children
 - speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
 - talking in class
 - preparing to study at a US university
 - other (please specify) at work (office work)

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

new phrases, fluency

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? Adhwan Aalru Thea

2. How would you describe your current English level?

I think in the middel

3. How long have you been in the US?

20yr

4. How comfortable are you using English?

sometimes easy

5. How often do you speak English?

- all the time
- at least 4 times an hour
- at least once an hour
- once a day
- only in class
- other (please specify) _____

6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)

- hourly
- several times a day
- at least once a week
- weekly
- other (please specify) _____

7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.

- accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
- fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
- phrases you can use in different situations
- confidence when speaking English
- other (please specify) _____

8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.

- visiting the doctor
- going to the grocery store
- ordering food in a restaurant
- speaking to teachers of my children
- speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
- talking in class
- preparing to study at a US university
- other (please specify) _____

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? ZHIZHIN Fu
2. How would you describe your current English level? Not good.
3. How long have you been in the US? ten month
4. How comfortable are you using English? A little nervous
5. How often do you speak English?
 - all the time
 - at least 4 times an hour
 - at least once an hour
 - once a day
 - only in class
 - other (please specify) _____
6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)
 - hourly
 - several times a day
 - at least once a week
 - weekly
 - other (please specify) _____
7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.
 - accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
 - fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
 - phrases you can use in different situations
 - confidence when speaking English
 - other (please specify) _____
8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.
 - visiting the doctor
 - going to the grocery store
 - ordering food in a restaurant
 - speaking to teachers of my children
 - speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
 - talking in class
 - preparing to study at a US university
 - other (please specify) TOEFL exam (plan to do the exam)

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

It's funny. fluently speaking.

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? Khadijeh Dastvan
2. How would you describe your current English level? Intermediate
3. How long have you been in the US? one year and a half
4. How comfortable are you using English? very good
5. How often do you speak English?
 - all the time
 - at least 4 times an hour
 - at least once an hour
 - once a day
 - only in class
 - other (please specify) _____
6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)
 - hourly
 - several times a day
 - at least once a week
 - weekly
 - other (please specify) _____
7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.
 - accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
 - fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
 - phrases you can use in different situations
 - confidence when speaking English
 - other (please specify) _____
8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.
 - visiting the doctor
 - going to the grocery store
 - ordering food in a restaurant
 - speaking to teachers of my children
 - speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
 - talking in class
 - preparing to study at a US university
 - other (please specify) _____

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? chunxian zhang
2. How would you describe your current English level? 4.
3. How long have you been in the US? 14 years
4. How comfortable are you using English? yes.
5. How often do you speak English?
 - all the time
 - at least 4 times an hour
 - at least once an hour
 - once a day
 - only in class
 - other (please specify) _____
6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)
 - hourly
 - several times a day
 - at least once a week
 - weekly
 - other (please specify) _____
7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.
 - accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
 - fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
 - phrases you can use in different situations
 - confidence when speaking English
 - other (please specify) _____
8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.
 - visiting the doctor
 - going to the grocery store
 - ordering food in a restaurant
 - speaking to teachers of my children
 - speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
 - talking in class
 - preparing to study at a US university
 - other (please specify) on the phons

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

yes.

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? Alla Chokmeneva
2. How would you describe your current English level?
3. How long have you been in the US? 3 month
4. How comfortable are you using English? reading, listen.
5. How often do you speak English?
 - all the time
 - at least 4 times an hour
 - at least once an hour
 - once a day
 - only in class
 - other (please specify) _____
6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)
 - hourly
 - several times a day
 - at least once a week
 - weekly
 - other (please specify) _____
7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.
 - accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
 - fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
 - phrases you can use in different situations
 - confidence when speaking English
 - other (please specify) _____
8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.
 - visiting the doctor
 - going to the grocery store
 - ordering food in a restaurant
 - speaking to teachers of my children
 - speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
 - talking in class
 - preparing to study at a US university
 - other (please specify) _____

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? Longlong You
2. How would you describe your current English level? Moderate
3. How long have you been in the US? over 6 months
4. How comfortable are you using English? a little nervous
5. How often do you speak English?
 - all the time
 - at least 4 times an hour
 - at least once an hour
 - once a day
 - only in class
 - other (please specify) _____
6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)
 - hourly
 - several times a day
 - at least once a week
 - weekly
 - other (please specify) _____
7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.
 - accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
 - fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
 - phrases you can use in different situations
 - confidence when speaking English
 - other (please specify) pronunciation
8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.
 - visiting the doctor
 - going to the grocery store
 - ordering food in a restaurant
 - speaking to teachers of my children
 - speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
 - talking in class
 - preparing to study at a US university
 - other (please specify) go to church

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

I'll learn English communication skills, work or life knowledge in America, and how to speak English more quickly.

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? Zhenfang Sun
2. How would you describe your current English level?
3. How long have you been in the US? 1 month
4. How comfortable are you using English?
5. How often do you speak English?
 - all the time
 - at least 4 times an hour
 - at least once an hour
 - once a day
 - only in class
 - other (please specify) _____
6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)
 - hourly
 - several times a day
 - at least once a week
 - weekly
 - other (please specify) _____
7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.
 - accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
 - fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
 - phrases you can use in different situations
 - confidence when speaking English
 - other (please specify) _____
8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.
 - visiting the doctor
 - going to the grocery store
 - ordering food in a restaurant
 - speaking to teachers of my children
 - speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
 - talking in class
 - preparing to study at a US university
 - other (please specify) _____

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? JING WANG
2. How would you describe your current English level? Basic
3. How long have you been in the US? two years
4. How comfortable are you using English? ~~easy~~ no chance to speak
5. How often do you speak English? ~~Not too much~~
 - all the time
 - at least 4 times an hour
 - at least once an hour
 - once a day
 - only in class
 - other (please specify) _____
6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)
 - hourly
 - several times a day
 - at least once a week
 - weekly
 - other (please specify) _____
7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.
 - accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
 - fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
 - phrases you can use in different situations
 - confidence when speaking English
 - other (please specify) _____
8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.
 - visiting the doctor
 - going to the grocery store
 - ordering food in a restaurant
 - speaking to teachers of my children
 - speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
 - talking in class
 - preparing to study at a US university
 - other (please specify) _____

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

~~I'll do my best to speak.~~

speaking.

General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) Needs Analysis

Please answer the following questions.

1. What is your name? Jill Hoyos
2. How would you describe your current English level? High Intermediate.
3. How long have you been in the US? two years and a half
4. How comfortable are you using English? I feel comfortable speaking, but not much writing.
5. How often do you speak English?
 - all the time
 - at least 4 times an hour
 - at least once an hour
 - once a day
 - only in class
 - other (please specify) _____
6. How often do you listen to English outside of class (e.g., listen to the radio, watch TV, talk to friends?)
 - hourly
 - several times a day
 - at least once a week
 - weekly
 - other (please specify) _____
7. What general speaking skills do you think you need to focus on during the General English for Spouses/Partners (GES) course? Select as many as apply.
 - accuracy when speaking (fewer grammatical mistakes)
 - fluency when speaking (fewer hesitations)
 - phrases you can use in different situations
 - confidence when speaking English
 - other (please specify) pronunciation
8. How do you need to be able to use your English? Select as many as apply.
 - visiting the doctor
 - going to the grocery store
 - ordering food in a restaurant
 - speaking to teachers of my children
 - speaking to my landlord / apartment manager
 - talking in class
 - preparing to study at a US university
 - other (please specify) work as a social worker

9. Below are some topics we might study in class. Choose the 5 that you are most interested in studying:

- Ask about people's interests and hobbies, Talk about your interests, hobbies, and taste in music
- Talk about how to stay healthy, describe common health problems, Talk about what you do when you have a health problem
- Talk about birthdays, celebrations, and favorite holidays, Describe how you celebrate special days, Talk about plans and predictions
- Talk about life events and memories of growing up, Talk about school and your teenage years
- Ask and answer questions about places in a town, give directions, offer help and ask for directions, Talk about stores and favorite places in your town, Recommend places in your neighborhood
- Talk about things you need to do before a trip, Give advice and make suggestions, Talk about travel and vacations
- Talk about where you keep things at home, Talk about home furnishings, Identify objects, Talk about home habits and evening routines
- Tell anecdotes about things that went wrong, Talk about accidents, Respond to anecdotes
- Talk about different ways of communicating, Compare ways of keeping in touch, Manage phone conversations
- Describe people's appearances, Identify people
- Talk about the future, Talk about plans and organizing events, Discuss different jobs

10. What do you think you will learn in this class?

vocabulary, spelling, reading.